

RICHMOND HILL

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

1 PETER 1:22-25

Pastor Scott Baker ● February 13, 2022

We are commanded to love one another and how we love one another will be demonstrated in how we _____ one another!

(John 13:34-35)

1. The starting point for loving one another is our _____ and ongoing _____! (v.22)

(1 John 4:7-12; Matthew 22:37-39)

God is love & when we come to know Him, His love is perfected in us!

We can now _____ true love & _____ true love!

When we love God with all that we are, He pours His love into us and that's the love we should love _____ with!

2. The primary recipients of our love are _____! (v.22) (John 13:34; Romans 12:9-10; Matthew 9:36-38)

We are saved and are in the process of being sanctified so that we can _____ one another!

We will never reach the lost with the love of Jesus if they do not see the love of Jesus _____ in and through us!

3. We must love one another with _____ we have! (v.22) (1 Peter 4:8; Philippians 2:3-4; John 15:12-13)

Loving others is not _____. It requires commitment and sacrifice.

Our love for one another should drive us to forgive and forget instead of to seek and destroy!

4. The motivation for loving one another is _____ (v.23-25) (1 John 34:16-18)

God's Word is clear, if we truly belong to Him, we will love one another and _____ speak louder than _____!