As your kids grow older your responsibilities change, but one thing that you are responsible for that does not change is _____ your children about God! (Deuteronomy 6:4-7)

If you do this, the Bible promises it will have lasting _____ in the lives of your children! (Proverbs 22:6)

The biggest roadblock to fulfilling your primary responsibility as a mom is getting distracted by the _____ of life!

1. You must have the right _____!

You cannot successfully accomplish the main thing you are responsible for as a parent, which is teaching your children about God, if you first do not have a _____ with Him yourself! (Matthew 7:24-25)

2. You must have the right _____!

Do not get so busy _____ Jesus that you _____ your relationship with Him!

Don't forsake the _____ for the _____!

In order to serve Jesus effectively, you have to spend _____ with Him!

(Matthew 6:32-33; Hebrews 12:1-2)

3. The right foundation + the right focus = the right _____!

Our faith in Jesus will always result in us doing good _____ for Him. It's what He saved us for! (Ephesians 2:10; Romans 7:4)

Being more focused on your _____ rather than on Jesus always leads to stress and anxiety, not _____!

Give your worries, concerns, stresses and burdens to Jesus and He will give you _____! (Matthew 11:28-30)

Don't miss your _____ with Jesus! You need Him every day! We all do!

Spending time with Jesus has no _____ side effects! It only helps you!

(Psalm 73:26; Isaiah 26:3)
