

Pastor Scott Baker

8.6.23

1. God's _____ for marriage. (Genesis 2:18-24)

God's design for marriage is one man and one woman for _____.

God's original design for marriage did not include _____.

(Matthew 19:3-8; Deuteronomy 24:1-4)

The religious leaders of the day were using Deuteronomy 24:1 to _____ any kind of divorce for any reason! As long as a certificate of divorce was issued, they were good! They even claimed as we saw in Matthew 19:7 that Moses _____ divorce, which was not the case.

They also taught that if a certificate of divorce was issued then _____ was always permissible, no matter what the cause for the divorce.

2. The popular view of divorce _____ . (v.31-32)

Jesus is totally debunking the idea that any divorce for whatever reason is ok! Why is that?! Because God's original design for marriage was that it be _____, for life!

Jesus is clearly teaching that divorce on the grounds of adultery, while not preferred is _____. If this is the case, then remarriage is not a problem. Those who are biblically permitted to divorce are _____ permitted to remarry.

3. The _____ of an unbiblical divorce. (v.32)

Simply put, Jesus is saying that if the divorce is not permitted or is unbiblical, then the remarriage would be as well. In other words, in God's eyes the first marriage is not over, so a new one would be considered _____.

Pastor Scott Baker

8.6.23

1. God's _____ for marriage. (Genesis 2:18-24)

God's design for marriage is one man and one woman for _____.

God's original design for marriage did not include _____.

(Matthew 19:3-8; Deuteronomy 24:1-4)

The religious leaders of the day were using Deuteronomy 24:1 to _____ any kind of divorce for any reason! As long as a certificate of divorce was issued, they were good! They even claimed as we saw in Matthew 19:7 that Moses _____ divorce, which was not the case.

They also taught that if a certificate of divorce was issued then _____ was always permissible, no matter what the cause for the divorce.

2. The popular view of divorce _____ . (v.31-32)

Jesus is totally debunking the idea that any divorce for whatever reason is ok! Why is that?! Because God's original design for marriage was that it be _____, for life!

Jesus is clearly teaching that divorce on the grounds of adultery, while not preferred is _____. If this is the case, then remarriage is not a problem. Those who are biblically permitted to divorce are _____ permitted to remarry.

3. The _____ of an unbiblical divorce. (v.32)

Simply put, Jesus is saying that if the divorce is not permitted or is unbiblical, then the remarriage would be as well. In other words, in God's eyes the first marriage is not over, so a new one would be considered _____.

These are hard words for many of us today to hear. This flies in the face of what the world or our culture believes, but we must not let the world, or our culture _____ these issues. We must let God's Word speak for itself and we must seek to understand and _____ what it says.

The religious leaders had turned marriage into a joke. It didn't matter. It wasn't important. God's design could be cast aside, and better plans developed. Jesus is saying, 'No! Stop it! Marriage _____! It's important!' (Ephesians 5:31-32)

Paul adds what many believe is a second biblical exception for divorce... If an _____ spouse leaves a believing spouse, Paul says the believing spouse is free to divorce. (1 Corinthians 7:12-16)

What should you do if you've had an unbiblical divorce or married someone who has?

4. _____ with it!

We must _____ our sin to God and to those we have sinned against.

We also must realize and fully understand that we serve a _____ God, a God whose mercies are new every morning.

(Lamentations 3:22-23; 1 John 1:9)

Here is a truth you need to hear – God _____ forgive you. Divorce is not an _____ sin.

If you are remarried, God does not want you to _____ your current spouse and go back to your previous spouse.

What God does want is for you to be _____ to your current spouse and do all that you can to protect your marriage.

These are hard words for many of us today to hear. This flies in the face of what the world or our culture believes, but we must not let the world, or our culture _____ these issues. We must let God's Word speak for itself and we must seek to understand and _____ what it says.

The religious leaders had turned marriage into a joke. It didn't matter. It wasn't important. God's design could be cast aside, and better plans developed. Jesus is saying, 'No! Stop it! Marriage _____! It's important!' (Ephesians 5:31-32)

Paul adds what many believe is a second biblical exception for divorce... If an _____ spouse leaves a believing spouse, Paul says the believing spouse is free to divorce. (1 Corinthians 7:12-16)

What should you do if you've had an unbiblical divorce or married someone who has?

4. _____ with it!

We must _____ our sin to God and to those we have sinned against.

We also must realize and fully understand that we serve a _____ God, a God whose mercies are new every morning.

(Lamentations 3:22-23; 1 John 1:9)

Here is a truth you need to hear – God _____ forgive you. Divorce is not an _____ sin.

If you are remarried, God does not want you to _____ your current spouse and go back to your previous spouse.

What God does want is for you to be _____ to your current spouse and do all that you can to protect your marriage.