

Scott Baker

8.17.23

It was God’s amazing love for us that caused Him to make a way for our _____! (John 3:16; Ephesians 2:4-5)
 Because of His love for us, we are to _____ Him back. (Matt 22:37-40)
 By our love for each other, people will know that we _____ to Jesus. (John 13:34-35)
 Our hearts will _____ how we love!
 Jesus is going to really test us on how well we truly do love, not by how well we love those who love us, but by how well we love those who _____!
“An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth” = This part of the law was given to guide the courts in their judgments and the different civil authorities as they administered justice. It was not intended to be used by _____ seeking personal revenge.
(Exodus 21:23-25; Deuteronomy 19:20-21)
 The religious leaders of the day were teaching the law of retaliation and it applied to everyone and therefore it justified anyone seeking _____ revenge for anything done against them.
 Jesus is teaching that when we love like Him, we will not seek _____ when we are wronged! (v.39) (Romans 12:17-21)
 God will deal with those who wrong us, we don’t need to! Instead, we are to _____ them, and that love is demonstrated by acts of _____!

We love and serve others by...

1. Not going _____ to _____ with them! (v.39)

Jesus is saying don’t trade _____! Don’t go back and forth always trying to get the last word or the upper hand!
 Jesus practiced what He preached (Matthew 26:67-68; 1 Peter 2:23)
 When insulted, if you respond in love and in service, the other party may be rendered _____

Scott Baker

8.17.23

It was God’s amazing love for us that caused Him to make a way for our _____! (John 3:16; Ephesians 2:4-5)
 Because of His love for us, we are to _____ Him back. (Matt 22:37-40)
 By our love for each other, people will know that we _____ to Jesus. (John 13:34-35)
 Our hearts will _____ how we love!
 Jesus is going to really test us on how well we truly do love, not by how well we love those who love us, but by how well we love those who _____!
“An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth” = This part of the law was given to guide the courts in their judgments and the different civil authorities as they administered justice. It was not intended to be used by _____ seeking personal revenge.
(Exodus 21:23-25; Deuteronomy 19:20-21)
 The religious leaders of the day were teaching the law of retaliation and it applied to everyone and therefore it justified anyone seeking _____ revenge for anything done against them.
 Jesus is teaching that when we love like Him, we will not seek _____ when we are wronged! (v.39) (Romans 12:17-21)
 God will deal with those who wrong us, we don’t need to! Instead, we are to _____ them, and that love is demonstrated by acts of _____!

We love and serve others by...

1. Not going _____ to _____ with them! (v.39)

Jesus is saying don’t trade _____! Don’t go back and forth always trying to get the last word or the upper hand!
 Jesus practiced what He preached (Matthew 26:67-68; 1 Peter 2:23)
 When insulted, if you respond in love and in service, the other party may be rendered _____

Scott Baker

8.17.23

2. Not being too _____ to the things of the world! (v.40)

Jesus' point here is that when someone sues you for your shirt, instead of _____ them, give it to them and give them your coat as well. Don't be too attached to the things of the world! Trust that God will take care of you and provide for your needs.

3. Going the extra _____! (v.41)

Roman soldiers could force an Israeli to carry his pack or any load he gives you for a Roman mile.

Jesus here is saying don't stop at the legal limit! _____ go the mile and then go another one on your own! Love and serve that Roman soldier! It would no doubt have an impact on him!

In doing so, you model the love of Jesus. (Matthew 20:27-28)

We are to go _____ and _____ in how we love and serve others!

4. Giving until it _____! (v.42)

Here Jesus is saying we love and serve others by being _____ with His money!

He is not saying to give to just anyone who asks, but to those with real needs. He expects us to be good _____ of his resources! (2 Thessalonians 3:10)

We are to freely give with no strings attached. We must give _____, not stingily!

Love like Jesus! Jesus has blessed us beyond measure, and He expects us to be a _____ to others! (1 Peter 3:9)

Jesus is saying the heart of the matter is love!
Our love is demonstrated by our _____!

Scott Baker

8.17.23

2. Not being too _____ to the things of the world! (v.40)

Jesus' point here is that when someone sues you for your shirt, instead of _____ them, give it to them and give them your coat as well. Don't be too attached to the things of the world! Trust that God will take care of you and provide for your needs.

3. Going the extra _____! (v.41)

Roman soldiers could force an Israeli to carry his pack or any load he gives you for a Roman mile.

Jesus here is saying don't stop at the legal limit! _____ go the mile and then go another one on your own! Love and serve that Roman soldier! It would no doubt have an impact on him!

In doing so, you model the love of Jesus. (Matthew 20:27-28)

We are to go _____ and _____ in how we love and serve others!

4. Giving until it _____! (v.42)

Here Jesus is saying we love and serve others by being _____ with His money!

He is not saying to give to just anyone who asks, but to those with real needs. He expects us to be good _____ of his resources! (2 Thessalonians 3:10)

We are to freely give with no strings attached. We must give _____, not stingily!

Love like Jesus! Jesus has blessed us beyond measure, and He expects us to be a _____ to others! (1 Peter 3:9)

Jesus is saying the heart of the matter is love!
Our love is demonstrated by our _____!